

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

WRIT PETITION NO.2861 OF 2007

Vice Chancellor, University of Pune	.
and others	Respondents

Petitioner in person.

CORAM : F.I. REBELLO &
R.M. SAVANT, JJ.
DATED : 23RD APRIL, 2007.

P.C. :

1. The Petitioner who is an LL.B. degree holder, wanted to pursue his LL.M. from Pune University. He has been pursuing the course since the year 1985. The Petitioner partially cleared the exam in the year 1995 but was short of 9 marks in the aggregate. He appeared in 2000 and improved by 6 marks and therefore the shortage was of 3 marks. He thereafter appeared in 2001 and 2003 but could not improve his aggregate. The University thereafter has not permitted persons like the Petitioner from appearing.

2. The contention of the Petitioner is that the policy decision of the University was not brought to his attention and consequently the University should be directed to allow him to appear for LL.M. examination course. In our view even if the college/department through whom the Petitioner was appearing did not bring the same to his attention, will not be of any avail. The Petitioner has been pursuing the course for 20 years, by itself is a factor that should go against the Petitioner.

3. At any rate, this is not a fit case for us to interfere in the extra-ordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. The Writ Petition is accordingly disposed of.
